Message From Chief Executive

John KC LEE
GBM, SBS, PDSM, PMSM

Chief Executive
Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

I am delighted to offer my best wishes to the Hong Kong, China delegation competing in the East Asian Youth Games 2023 in Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia, 16 to 23 August.

Taking place for the first time, the East Asian Youth Games replaces the East Asian Games. The Youth Games is open to young athletes from 14 to 18 years of age.

Hong Kong will send more than 140 athletes to the Games. They will compete in nine sports: athletics, badminton, basketball, E-sports, football, judo, table tennis, taekwondo and volleyball. I am confident they will perform admirably on the international stage in Ulaanbaatar. And, alongside any medals they earn, I have no doubt that they will return to Hong Kong with a lasting appreciation of the value of cultural diversity of East Asia, and the spirit of fair play.

Young athletes are the future of our sports community. Their participation in international sports competitions deserves the enthusiastic support of the entire community. The Government provides continuous funding for our young athletes. And our enhanced sports policies, coupled with the concerted efforts of the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China, the Hong Kong Sports Institute and national sports associations, ensures an effective system for developing elite, internationally competitive athletes.

I wish our young athletes the best of success in their sports and a memorable experience at the Ulaanbaatar East Asian Youth Games.

John KC LEE
Chief Executive

欣悉中國香港代表團於八月十六至二十三日期間，參加在蒙古首都烏蘭巴托舉行的二零二三年東亞青年運動會，我期待各位港隊代表發揮最佳水準，取得美滿成績。

東亞青年運動會前身為東亞運動會，今年首次舉行，雲集東亞地區十四至十八歲的青年運動員同場較量，競逐殊榮。

香港派出一百四十多名運動員參加今屆九個項目，分別為田徑、羽毛球、籃球、電子競技、足球、柔道、乒乓球、跆拳道和排球賽事。我相信，各運動員必會在烏蘭巴托的國際舞台上盡展所長，大放異彩。他們此行亦必定滿載而歸，除了贏得獎牌凱旋返港外，亦會體驗到東亞地區多元文化及公平競技精神，對此留下美好回憶。

青年運動員是體育界的未來棟樑，代表香港參加國際體育賽事，竭盡所能為港爭光，值得社會各界鼎力支持。為此，政府不斷為青年運動員投放資源，並致力優化體育政策，提供支援。中國香港體育協會暨奧林匹克委員會、香港體育學院及各體育總會亦與政府同心協力，建立完善培訓機制，培育國際級的精英運動員，造就體壇人才。

我祝願各位青年運動員在烏蘭巴托東亞青年運動會成果豐碩，滿載而歸。

Ulaanbaatar has been chosen to inaugurate the East Asian Youth Games with an array of sports that interest this hemisphere. All told our delegation will comprise more than 140 athletes in a bid to excel in sports such as Badminton, Table Tennis, Basketball, Volleyball, Judo, Taekwondo and etc. These Games will enable our youths to hone their competitive edge and add to their experiences as a precursor to their growth as athletes. We are rightly excited to be present in Ulaanbaatar as that city hosts the tournament of young champions and acquires the experiences to aspire for the staging of other grand events. Thus we will be a part of the sporting history.

My heartfelt congratulations to the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China on fielding around 145 young athletes at the first East Asian Youth Games held in Ulaanbaatar.

The Games attracts over 1,500 best young athletes from East Asian countries and regions to compete in 12 sports in Ulaanbaatar. Hong Kong athletes have performed spectacularly at international sports events in recent years. They have strived hard to strike a balance between training and studies. Their efforts are widely recognised and commended by the community. To provide comprehensive support to our athletes for dual career development, the Government will continue to work closely with the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China, Hong Kong Sports Institute and "national sports associations", to help our athletes realise their sports dream.

From EAG to EAYG

Why did East Asian Games be changed to East Asian Youth Games?

During the East Asian Games Association (EAGA) Council Meeting in May 2013, the EAGA Council considered that a reform was required in order to strive for progress and development, and thus it was decided in the meeting to transform the East Asian Games (EAG) to the East Asian Youth Games (EAYG) with the age limit of the participating athletes was set between 14 – 18 years old and limit of the number of sports for the Games.

Who is organizing the new Games and why is it being launched?

The EAYG is a continental multi-sport event held every four years organized by the East Asian Olympic Committees (EAOC). It is a replacement of EAG. Ulaanbaatar is the city to host the EAYG for the first time after the EAYG confirmed to organize.

What is the goal of the EAYG?

- The objective of the EAYG is to promote the development of sports, culture, education, and the spirit of fair play in sports competitions among young people in East Asia and to build up the physical fitness of young generation in the region.
- It also serves to identify young talented athletes in East Asia through the participation in multi-sports Games in order to strengthen the relationship between them and inspire them to participate in future Olympic Games.

How many countries and regions are expected to participate in the EAYG, and how many athletes are expected to take part in the Games?

- Eight NOCs will participate in the EAYG. It is expected more than 800 athletes will take part in the 2023 EAYG. The eight NOCs included China, Chinese Taipei, DPR Korea, Hong Kong, China, Japan, Macau, China, Mongolia, Republic of Korea.

How many athletes from Hong Kong will take part in the EAYG, and how many sports will they participate in?

We will be sending over 140 athletes to compete in nine sports including Athletics, Badminton, Basketball (5on5 and 3x3), Esports, Football (Boy's and Girl's), Judo, Table Tennis, Taekwondo and Volleyball (Boy's and Girl's).

About the Games

The East Asian Youth Games (EAYG) is a multi-sport event held every four years among players from East Asian NOCs which are members of the East Asian Olympic Committees (EAOC). Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia, will host this event for the first time, promoting the ideals of Olympism in compliance with the Olympic Charter and the Constitution and Rules of the Olympic Council of Asia. The mission of EAYG is to promote the development of sports, culture, education, the spirit of fair play and physical fitness among young people in East Asia. It also aims at discovering young talented players in the region, and inspiring them to participate in the 2028 and 2032 Olympic Games. Through organizing EAYG, the host city also hopes to introduce Mongolian history, tradition, culture and art to the participants.

Emblem

Ulaanbaatar 2023
East Asian Youth Games

The logo draws inspiration from the Toono (pronounced like “Tawn”), the circular opening on the roof of a traditional Mongolian Ger, symbolizing unity and connection with the outside world. The stylized Toono, in the shape of a sunburst with rays radiating outwards, represents the unity of participating athletes and representatives of East Asia National Olympic Committees under one roof. It echoes the games’ theme of “Come Together”.

Its colors are inspired by the Mongolian landscape, with shades of blue and green for the sky and grasslands, and yellow and red for the warmth of the sun. The Toono logo embodies the spirit of the games, celebrating cultural diversity and competition in friendship and sportsmanship.

Mascot

The duo of Haki and Inga are the two official mascots. Based on mythical creatures that hold deep significance in Asian culture, these mascots were chosen to embody the spirit and heritage of Mongolia.

Haki

Haki is a Khangardi bird, which is the symbol of Ulaanbaatar. It represents courage, bravery and intelligence.

Inga

Inga is a Galbingaa bird, which is an ancient Mongolian winged bird-human and ancient Mongolian's totem. Galbingaa means "phoenix" in Mongolian, which people believe to bring faith, hope and inspiration. The character also highlights the nation's rich history and mythology.
